

CENTROS TECNOLÓGICOS
DE NAVARRA S.A.

30th July 1998

REPORT

The present report, asked for CETENSA by D. José Luis Arranz Gil from FALBALAMENDI Company, describes the reading tests carried out and the obtained results about an identification of animals chip in the presence of Catandog's antiparasitic plate.

For the tests achievement a POCKET-READER EX reader has been used with a standard model number 026439 and two chips. These equipments have been transferred by Public Health Veterinary surgeon BEATRIZ ANDERIZ MORLANES from FOOD HEALTH DEPARTMENT of PUBLIC HEALTH INSTITUTE of NAVARRA GOVERNMENT.

The reader using has been carried out with the specifications joined on the handbook.

DESCRIPTION OF THE REALIZED TESTS

The reading tests have been carried out in different conditions, realizing each of them ten times.

REALIZED TESTS:

- 1. Direct reading over chip for verifying the right reader working.
- 2. Chip reading placing the plate in front of this one.
- 3. Chip reading placing the plate behind this one.
- 4. Chip reading placing the plate laterally over this one.
- 5. Chip reading placing the plate in front of this one and inserting a piece of leather between the plate and the chip.
- 6. Chip reading inserted on a dog placing the plate in front of this one.

OBTAINED RESULTS:

	Nº Readings	Correct	Incorrect
Test nº1	10	10	0
Test nº2	10	10	0
Test nº3	10	10	0
Test nº4	10	10	0
Test nº5	10	10	0
Test nº6	10	10	0

After the tests realization It is watched that no mistake has taken place in any of the carried out tests.

Project Responsible

Santiago Gallo